THE
SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,
Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.
Monday, April 4th, 1743. [Numb. 471.]

BOSTON, January 10.

FROM Virginia they write, that a Number of Officers were arrived from General Oglethorpe, to raiſe a Regiment for the Defence of Georgia, South-Carolina, &c. they being apprehenſive of another Viſit from the Spaniards, from the great Numbers of Foot and Dragoons daily aſſembling at Auguſtine.

January 24. By Captain Williams from Jamaica we are informed, that the Night before he ſail'd, a Veſſel arrived there from Barbados, with 23 Engliſhmen who had been taken Priſoners by the Spaniards, among whom were Capt. Ellingwood of Salem, and Capt. Doggett who ſail'd from this Town.

February 14. By a Veſſel from Lisbon to Marblehead, there are Letters to the 7th of January paſt, informing, that the City of Prague had ſurrendered to the Auſtrians, but upon what Conditions is not ſaid. That the Succeſſion to the Crown of Sweden is ſettled on the Duke of Holſtein, who is to marry a Princeſs of Ruſſia. That Prince Charles of Lorrain intended to keep the Field all Winter; and being poſted between Maillebois and the Magazines, the French Army was in a miſerable Condition, being in want of all Neceſſaries, and many of the Soldiers quite bare-footed; ſo that 'twas thought very few of them would ever get back into France. That the French Court had made Application to the King of Pruſſia, to uſe his good Offices for bringing about an Accommodation of the Differences yet ſubſiſting between the contending Powers in Europe. That two ſeventy-Gun Ships were arrived at Lizbon in Twelve Days from Plymouth, to join Admiral Mathews in the Mediterranean, one of which had loſt her Fore-Maſt, and was in ſo much Hurry to be gone, that they took the Fore-Maſt out of another Ship then in Port to ſupply the Defect. And, that the general Opinion at Lizbon was, that there would ſoon be a Spaniſh Peace and a French War.

NEW-PORT, Rhode-Iſland, Febr. 4. Laſt Lord's Day was happily diſcovered a Conſpiracy of a great Number of Spaniſh and other Prize Negroes, to run away with one of the Privateer Sloops in the Harbour. As the Four Men were to have lodged on board that Night, their Deſign might eaſily have been effected, but that one Fellow they had a great Mind to perſuade to go with them, choſe to continue with his preſent Maſter, and out of Gratitude to him betray'd their Plot.

Boſton, February 21. Yeſterday Captain Baley arrived here from the Streights, who left Port-Mahon on the 19th of December laſt. He ſays, that the Spaniſh Fleet lay ſnug and unrigged in Toulon, and that Admiral Mathews ſuffered no Veſſels with Proviſions to enter that Port. And, that the Spaniſh Privateers were very brisk about the Gut of Gibraltar.

Philadelphia, February 1. We were acquainted laſt Week that the Rev. Mr. Whitefield was ſoon expected here, according to his Letter dated at Edinburgh, October 4th, with this comfortable Clauſe, viz. That as to his Principles of Religion, he hath not altered them in the leaſt ſince he left America.

On the other Hand we can inform the Publick, that there are ſeveral creditable Perſons in this City, who affirm that they were preſent at a certain Congregation, when a Letter from the ſaid Mr. Whitefield was Publickly read; wherein he calleth the Moravians his Brethren, and amongſt other tender Expreſſions doth lament that ever he expoſed, (as he had done at Firſt) eſpecially the Brother P---r B-----r, with a great many more Expreſſions of his Love towards, and Connexion with the Moravian Brethren: There is alſo among others of his Letters, one to a certain Gentleman of that Society in this Town, whom he amongſt other lovely Expreſſions ſtyleth his Oneſimus. This we think ſufficient to ſuggeſt that if the above mentioned Clauſe be originally True, it needs muſt follow, That Mr. Whitefield ſince his leaving this Place, hath changed his Opinions, and changed them again; which Time will diſcover.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 4.

On Thurſday Night laſt arrived here from Port-Royal, the Charles-Town Galley, commanded by Captain Braddock, being ordered hither by the Government; on Saturday ſhe ſail'd down to Hobcaw, to careen.

Captain Braddock in his Paſſage hither met with the Syy Man of War, Capt. Newnham, cruizing, out of Danger.

Yeſterday

Yesterday arriv'd here Capt. Marshall from Providence, by whom we have the following Information, viz. That Captains Sibbald and Dowell were return'd to that Place from the Havanna, whither they had convoy'd the Register Ship that had been ransom'd for 90,000 Pieces of Eight; that the Governor of the Havanna was perfectly satisfy'd with the exact Performance of their Agreement, and had releas'd and put on board the two Captains, 74 English Prisoners, amongst which were Twelve Masters of Vessels; that there yet remain'd Prisoners at Havanna 215 Seamen, &c and five Captains; That the two Philadelphia Privateer's Companies had shar'd their Prize Money already, at Providence, and had left their Vessels, so that Capt. Sibbald only waits the Return of the Rose from Exuma, (where she is gone to protect the Salt-Rakers) to proceed Home with his Owners Interest, under her Convoy. Capt. Marshall likewise informs us, that a large Privateer Sloop, well manned, is fitting out at Providence, to cruize on the Spaniards, (she is own'd and commanded by one Capt Ellis;) That Capt Griffin, in a Rhode Island Privateer Schooner was return'd from a Cruize in a shatter'd Condition, and with the Loss of one of his Masts, having had an Engagement with two Spanish Privateers in the old Straights of Bahama, but had, however, the good Fortune to escape; And, that 'twas said at Providence, that Captain Allen, in the New Revenge another Rhode-Island Privateer, had met with the two Spaniards above mention'd, the Day after Griffin escap'd from them, and after a small Engagement sunk one and drove the other of them ashore, at the Matanzas, in the old Straights also said.

Yesterday Afternoon also, arriv'd here a Boat from Savannah in Georgia, the Master of which gives us the following Information, That before he left Savannah, one of General Oglethorpe's Scout Boats commanded by one Jones, arriv'd there from St Juan's River, with Letters to Col. Stephens and others at that Place, advising, that on the General's Landing in Florida, the Spaniards had quitted all the Posts they held on this Side of St. Augustine, and made a precipitate Retreat into that Town; That the General, with his Forces, had pursued them quite under the Walls thereof, and ravaged all the Country about; That his Rangers and Indians had kill'd 43 Men of the Enemy and taken two Prisoners; And that he was endeavouring by all possible Means to excite the Enemy to make a Sallies upon him, so that destroying them by Piece Meals, he may at last be in a Condition to surprize and seize the Place; That for that End, and to hinder any Relief coming to Augustine by Sea, the General the General had sent to Express to Captain Charles Hardy lying off that Bar in his Majesty's Ship the Rye, with the Beaufort Galley, entreating him to stay there some Time, in order to intercept or beat off such Succours as may attempt to come; This Express was sent to Capt. Hardy the Day Mr. Jones left the General, so that the Answer given can't yet be learnt. Our Informer further says, that Mr. Jones told him, the General was to embark (the Day he left him) in his small Craft, for Augustia, to which Island the Enemy have transported all their Cattle and Horses; That whilst under the Walls of Augustine, one of the General's Soldiers deserted to the Enemy, and at the same time his Indians march'd back for Frederica, but they, in a Day or two (meeting a fresh Party from their Nation, consisting of 100 Men) return'd and join the General, so that on this Account he reckons the Desertion of the Soldier will be of singular Service to him. In the present Expedition against St Augustine the General's Forces consist of about 730 Men, 230 whereof are Indians, besides a Ship of 20 Guns, commanded by Capt. Thomson, the Georgia Guard Schooner, and a great Number of small Craft (Scout Boats, &c.) at the Matanzas.

Last Wednesday William Thomas was executed, pursuant to his Sentence; we hear, he has left a Wife and 7 Children.
